

OUR CENTRALIZED MANAGEMENT SOLUTIONS FOR TELCO INDUSTRY

Workstations' security maximization

Solutions that allow the management of remote locations in a secure way and software that guarantee the security of every single device, wherever they are.

Login with user credentials and smart cards

Solutions that allow each user to access the resources quickly, securely and in a personalized way and facilitated by the use of smart cards and readers.

Heterogeneous endpoints management

A management console that allows you to differentiate access to workstations, especially when used by different users.

Remote locations management

A complete system that helps you manage remote office devices without having to define any VPN.

Working with secure workstations

Secure and manageable endpoints such as Thin Clients, software for authentication and access to workstations, centralized management console.

User profiles settings

Software that allow to differentiate the digital resources offered and the graphic interface based on the user who accesses and his needs.

High Availability

A secondary management console that allows you to always maintain continuity of service.

Remote assistance

A management console to quickly provide remote assistance to all workstations from a single location.

Support for industry specific peripherals

Hardware that allow you to connect and support all the peripherals that your sector requires.